FROM PREPARATION TO PLACEMENT

March brings those systems to life in the most visible way: candidates walking into interviews, offers being signed, careers beginning.

If January was about intent, and February about systems, March is where it comes together - in real opportunities. As we step into our 11th year, the intent is sharper. The goal is clear - to enable 250 candidates to move into meaningful employment this year. March is an early signal of what that looks like in practice.

Three employer engagements. Multiple shortlists. Offer letters. A BFSI (Banking, Financial Services & Insurance) batch marking its valedictory - not as an ending, but as a transition into the workforce. Alongside this, our foundation has been strengthened through renewed 12A and 80G registrations, Reinforcing credibility, compliance, and long-term sustainability. Inclusion shows up in outcomes - in selection results, in a deaf-led drama on adaptability, in candidates demonstrating Power BI insights with confidence. Preparation meets opportunity. That is the story of March.

MOCK INTERVIEWS - WHERE READINESS BECOMES CONFIDENCE

THE POWER OF PREPARATION

This month, WinVinaya conducted mock interview sessions with three external professionals – from technology, human resources, and finance.

What mock interviews build:

- Clarity on gaps
- Composure under pressure
- Confidence through feedback

Candidates experienced interview conditions that reflect real hiring environments – including diverse evaluation perspectives.

For candidates with varied communication needs – including sign language interpretation and accessible formats – this creates a space to prepare in conditions that mirror real scenarios. Preparation does not replace the process.

It enables candidates to meet it with readiness.
